

in the morning mirror

the sleepless dreamless darkness my body shows myself to me ... my shoulders are connected to my head my arms come out of my ears my legs come out of my back my hands come out of my chest.

I'm a hunchback
I'm a razor blade
I'm a boy scout
I'm afraid.
